

Potential theory, Schrodinger equations and positive solutions of some elliptic semilinear equations

Alano Ancona (University of Paris-Sud)

Abstract

We describe results related to boundary value problems for certain semilinear elliptic equations and boundary measure data in a Lipschitz domain. The methods use in particular potential theoretic properties related to (certain) linear Schrodinger equations.